THE LIFE AND EPISTLES OF PAUL

Introduction to our Study

John Wesley reportedly said that studying the Bible was like harvesting apples. First you shake the tree, then you shake a limb, then you look on each bough and under each leaf. Study by survey is shaking the tree.

Survey is a very important method of study. It enables the student to see the connection between books as well as the immediate context of any given verse or paragraph. Next to a genuine desire to know God’s will, knowing the immediate and greater context is perhaps the most important factor in correct Bible interpretation. Surveys are essential for those just beginning a study of the Bible, but they are also important for mature students who benefit from seeing once again “the big picture.”

The study you are beginning is a survey of Paul’s life and epistles. Three or four chapters will be covered in each lesson. We would suggest that these chapters be incorporated into a daily Bible reading program. Read over the questions first, then look for the answers as you read. This will keep the time of preparation from seeming so long.

Some mature students may be frustrated by having to limit discussion of truly important points in some of the lessons. However, each book being surveyed is studied in much greater detail in classes offered at Embry Hills. Please understand the value of the survey for some in the class and if you wish to be involved in more discussion, sign up for the class studying the particular epistle in which you are interested.

THE LIFE AND EPISTLES OF PAUL

Lesson 1

Paul's Early Life

This information must be pieced together from Acts and references in the epistles.

I. Paul's Nationality (Three Great Cultures: Roman, Greek, Hebrew)

A. A Roman
   3. Probably indicates father or grandfather honored for service.

B. A Citizen of Tarsus (Acts 22:39)
   1. Indicates more than residence roots in Tarsus.
   2. Double citizenship provided significant honor.
   3. Means he was reared in atmosphere of Greek culture.

C. A "Hebrew of Hebrews" (Philippians 3:5)
   1. "Tribe of Benjamin" Named for Israel's king from Benjamin.
   2. Obviously the most meaningful relationship to him.
      a. He spoke the language of Palestine, Aramaic.
      b. He went to Jerusalem for education.

II. City of Tarsus

A. Its universities comparable to those of Athens and Alexandria.

B. Its beauty: surrounded by fertile plains, mountains, the Cydnus River.

C. Its commerce
   1. River Port: Exporting timber, importing for the whole region.
   2. Center of weaving: Ropes, tents, etc. from Cilian goat hair.
   3. He learned tent-making (Acts 18:3). Gamaliel said, "Learning of any kind, unaccompanied by a trade, ends in nothing and leads to sin."

D. Its religion
   1. Pagan idolatry characterized by "luxurious effeminacy, unbounded gluttony, and brutal license" practiced daily and in festivals.
   2. Saul was "as touching the...law, blameless" (Philippians 3:6)

III. Paul's Family

A. Almost certainly wealthy and prominent.

B. A Pharisaic family devoted to law keeping.
   1. Sent Saul to the greatest living Rabbi for education.

IV. Paul's Age

B. "Paul, the aged" by AD 60-64 (Philemon 9).

C. Probably born around AD 1.
V. Paul's Education

A. Early

1. Age 5: Bible study with parents, memorizing scripture, etc.
2. Age 6: Attend Rabbi's school.
3. Age 10: Begin study of oral law (traditions).

B. Gamaliel most outstanding Rabbi of that era.

2. Paul would learn from him:
   a. Candor and honesty of judgment.
   b. Willingness to study Greek writings.
   c. Enthusiasm and zeal for the law of God.
3. Here Paul would study Hebrew as original language of the Law, though he most often quoted from the Septuagint Greek version.

C. Saul was a Pharisee (Philippians 3:5, Acts 26:4-5)

VI. Two Interesting Questions

A. Did Saul see Jesus?

1. Almost certainly he did not during the lifetime of Jesus.
2. He had probably finished his education and gone on mission to Gentiles (see Matthew 23:15, Galatians 5:11).

A. Introduction to the book.
   1. What opportunity did Paul have in Troas? (II Corinthians 2:12)
      Why did he not remain there?
      Where did he go?
   2. How did he feel when he got there? (7:5)
   3. By what was he comforted? (7:6)
   4. What had Paul's letter brought about in the Corinthians? (7:8-13)

   Titus apparently reported, however, that while the most of the Corinthians had repented and were favorable to Paul, there were some who were questioning his apostleship and even his veracity. They said he was afraid to come to Corinth to face them. This accounts for the large amount of personal defense offered by Paul. He had to defend himself in order that his message might be respected.

B. Chapter One
   1. What did Paul report to the Corinthians? (1:8)
   2. Why did Paul write a letter instead of coming to them?

C. Chapter Two
   1. With what emotions did Paul write the first letter?
   2. What had the sinner of I Corinthians 5 apparently done as result of the discipline Paul advised? (2:6-7)
   3. What was now to be done for him? Why?
Paul’s ministry (apostleship) was under attack in Corinth. He was not concerned for himself (See I Corinthians 4:3-4), but if his apostleship were rejected, his message would be rejected. This he could not permit.

I. PAUL’S DEFENSE OF HIS APOSTLESHIP (MINISTRY)

      What was its destiny? (3:11)
   4. What is “the Spirit that gives life”?
      How is its greater glory illustrated?
   5. What takes away “the veil” of those who read the Old Testament?
   6. What happens to us as we behold “as in a mirror the glory of the Lord”?

B. The Motivation of Paul’s Ministry (Chapter 4)
   1. What things had Paul renounced in his efforts to reach the lost?
   2. If the gospel he preached was veiled, who was responsible?
   3. Why was the treasure of the gospel placed in “earthen vessels”?
   4. What were some things Paul was suffering?
   5. What three reasons does he give for preaching? (4:13-15)
   6. Why did he not “lose heart”? (4:16-18)

C. The Goals of Paul’s Ministry (Chapter 5 - 6:2)
   1. What will take the place of the earthly tabernacle (tent) which we now inhabit?
   2. Where must we all appear?
   3. Describe the changes in one who is in Christ. (5:17)
   4. How were the apostles ambassadors?
   5. What was his message on behalf of Christ?

D. The Credentials of Paul’s Ministry (6:3-10)
   1. What was Paul eager to avoid in his ministry? (6:3)
   2. What credentials did he offer to prove his claim to be a minister of God?

II. PAUL’S APPEAL TO THE CORINTHIANS (6:11 - 7:1)

1. What fellowship were they to avoid?
2. What of those already involved? (6:17)

4. What should these promises encourage them to do? (7:1)

THE LIFE AND EPISTLES OF PAUL
Lesson 29: Ephesians 1, 2

INTRODUCTION
1. What were Paul’s circumstances as he wrote Ephesians? (3:1; 4:1; 6:20)
2. Who probably carried the letter to the Ephesians? (6:21)
3. How do these facts compare with Colossians? (Colossians 4:3, 7, 18)
4. Many believe that Ephesians was written as an open circular letter to be carried to many churches by Tychicus. This would explain:
   a. The absence of personal greetings in the letter to a familiar church.
   b. Some peculiar statements if intended exclusively for Ephesus (1:15; 3:2).
   c. The absence of the word EPHESEANS in many of the older manuscripts.
5. The following comparisons have been suggested:
   COLOSSIANS: Theme: The Fulness of Godhead in Christ (2:9) Subject: The Groom
   EPHESIANS: Theme: The Fulness of Christ in Church (1:22-23) Subject: The Bride

5. Where is Christ now sitting?
6. What is the church? (1:22-23)

   Of the Jews?

2. What three qualities of God rescued man? (2:4-5)
3. Where are those who are in Christ now sitting? (2:6)
4. On what ground was this provided, grace or merit?
   Does this give room for boasting?
5. What, specifically, was the position of the Gentiles? (2:12)
6. Why is Christ called “our peace”?

7. What was the middle wall of partition which He broke down?

8. What is the present position of Gentiles in Christ? (2:19)
INTRODUCTION

The word mystery suggests an idea which cannot be discovered by reasoning, but one that must be revealed. Once a mystery is explained or uncovered, it is no longer a mystery.

I. REVELATION OF THE MYSTERY (Chapter 3)
   1. How did Paul obtain his knowledge?
      What did he do with it?

   3. How long had the mystery been hidden?
   4. For what purpose were all things created? (3:9-10)

   5. To whom does the church make known the manifold wisdom of God?

   6. Where is the family of God located?

   4. For what purpose? (4:12)

   5. To what end? (4:13-15)

   6. Why must our “walk” be different from other Gentiles?

   7. Complete the following two lists from 4:25-31:

      Things to be put away:
      Things to be practiced:
Lesson 31: Ephesians 5, 6

I. THE CHRISTIAN’S WALK (Chapter 5:1-20)
This chapter continues the contrasts of the preceding chapter. Show the contrasts:

Children (Sons) of ___________ (vs. 6)  Children of God (vs. 1)
These practice: (3-4)
You were once ___________. (vs. 8)  Now you are _______. Walk accordingly.
We must not be fools (vs. 15)  But walk ___________ as _________.

3. What did Paul want the Ephesians to ask God for him in prayer?

Conclusion (6:21-24)
1. Who would apparently carry this letter?

2. Do verses 21-22 give some reason for the omission of many personal matters?
Lesson 32: Colossians 1, 2

INTRODUCTION
1. What were Paul's circumstances when he wrote Colossians? (1:24; 4:10, 18)
2. Ephesians and Colossians are twin books.
   a. Who carried both letters? (Ephesians 6:21; Colossians 4:7-9)
   b. Match the following passages:
      ___ Colossians 1:18    A. Ephesians 3:18

      ___ Colossians 3:20-21 F. Ephesians 4:22-24
   c. There does, however, seem to be a difference in emphasis, as noted in Lesson 29:
      COLOSSIANS: Theme: The Fulness of Godhead in Christ (2:9) Subject: The Groom
      Ephesians: Theme: The Fulness of Christ in Church (1:22-23) Subject: The Bride
   d. There is also evidence of error in Colossae which needed attention: Paul seems to have been correcting some of the errors which were later identified as Gnosticism. Among other tenets, it maintained that all material was inherently evil. This meant that Jesus was either evil (therefore, not God) or that he did not actually come in the flesh. This philosophy encouraged neglect or severity to the body as well as worship of angels because they are not in fleshly bodies. (See especially Colossians 2:8-9, 23, etc.)

I. THE DEITY OF CHRIST (Chapter 1)
   1. What characteristics of the Colossians caused Paul to give thanks?
   2. How far had the gospel been preached? (see also 1:23)
   3. Who was the Colossians' faithful minister?
   4. Did Paul pray for the spiritual, physical or material welfare of the Colossians?
   5. Into what had they been translated?
   6. What relation does Christ bear to God? (1:15)
   7. What is His relation to all creation? (1:15-17)
   8. What is His relation to the church?
   9. In what words does Paul reveal the mystery in Colossians? (1:27)
  10. How did Paul describe this mystery in Ephesians 3:6?

II. CHRIST IS ALL-SUFFICIENT (Chapter 2)
   1. What things are hidden in Christ?
   2. Of what does Paul warn in 2:8?
   3. How did all the fullness of the Godhead dwell in Christ?
   4. Where do we have access to the Godhead, where are we complete?
   5. When are we made alive with Christ?
   6. Why are we not to be judged in meat, drink, observance of Sabbaths, etc.?
   7. How may we lose our reward?
   8. What value do ascetic doctrines and commandments of men have?

Summary: Being complete in Christ, we have no need for human philosophy or the law of Moses.
