The Law
Lesson 1

The Need for the Law

Themes

Goals

1. Use principles from the Old Testament law to guide our Christian principles
2. Gain a measure of awe and reverence for Jesus’ sacrifice for our sins

Objectives for lesson 1

1. Identify the first act that made the Law necessary
2. List at least three events that showed man’s need for a law
3. Label a timeline of events leading up to the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai

Reading

Genesis 38, Romans 7

“...the LORD God formed man of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being.”

Genesis 2:7

Here in the Garden of Eden, man was as God had purposed. For six days God crafted the universe and everything in it, culminating with a being made in His own image. It’s in these first two chapters of Genesis that we’re privileged with a brief glimpse of the world and man as God had intended, perfect and lawless, for there was no sin to require it.

Through the corruption of sin, though, we begin to see man’s need for governance. Out of Eden and to the base of Mount Sinai we see what man wrought when he chose sin over God. Murder, theft, deception, and hearts of wickedness are just a few of the things that led to a need for the law given by God through Moses.
Consider the following events told of in Genesis and Exodus that demonstrated man’s need for God’s intercession:

- Genesis 3 The Fall of Man | Disobedience
- Genesis 4 Cain and Abel | Murder
- Genesis 6 Corruption of Man | Wicked hearts
- Genesis 9 Noah’s Sin | Drunkenness
- Genesis 11 The Tower of Babel | Pride, Arrogance
- Genesis 19 Sodom and Gomorrah | Sexual sin
- Genesis 20 Abraham’s Treachery | Lying
- Genesis 21 Sarah and Hagar | Polygamy
- Genesis 27 Jacob’s Blessing | Deception
- Genesis 29 Laban’s Treachery | Dishonesty
- Genesis 37 Joseph Sold | Jealousy
- Genesis 39 Potiphar’s Wife | Lust
- Exodus 1 Egyptian Bondage | Oppression
- Exodus 7 First Plagues | Disrespect
- Exodus 15-16 Grumbling in the Desert | Indifference

It became clear that if one day the Messiah would conquer sin and provide salvation for man, the hearts of men would first need to be conditioned to accept this salvation. The Law, then, was born to make known that which was evil; to arouse the people for good rather than sin; and most importantly to nurture faith and obedience in a people that, without which, would be lost to depravity.

Assignment

For each of the Ten Commandments, our minds usually default to a specific violation. Much like the old law itself though, the specific violation we think of is usually only a representation of the true heart of the law.

For each of the Ten Commandments, list the specific violation your mind defaults to, then list a different way the commandment could be violated that isn’t as obvious.

Example

</table>

What we learn then is that “…the law is but a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered every year, make perfect those who draw near.” Heb 10:1 (ESV)

Rather, the old law, beginning with the Ten Commandments, bring us to Christ

Questions

1. How were the materials gathered to make the Tabernacle (Ex. 25:1-9; ch. 35)?

2. How were the people able to build such an intricate structure (Ex. 35:30 – 36:1)?

3. When was it erected (Ex. 40:1)?

4. Who was in charge of it (Num. 1:50-51)?

5. When could it be moved (Ex. 40:34-38)?

What we begin to see through the Ten Commandments and the specific, intricate instructions given for the Tabernacle, is that God has a plan. Man has shown that he is in need of guidance or will be lost to sin eternally, so God is taking action. He has a plan, He has an exact way to achieve His plan, and we see in the ages to come that God has fulfilled that plan through the loving sacrifice of Jesus His Son.

Concerning your topic...

List the key facts:

What is the most interesting thing you observed?

Where do you see our themes?

“...and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.” Exodus 19:6 (ESV)

This statement resounds true today as Peter applies it to Christians in a call to “proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God’s people...”

The priest is a mediator between God and man, so Israel (physical and spiritual) is called to be the vehicle through whom the knowledge and salvation of God will come to man.

1 For since the law has but a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered every year, make perfect those who draw near. 2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshipers, having once been cleansed, would no longer have any consciousness of sins? 3 But in these sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year. 4 For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. 5 Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said, “Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body have you prepared for me; in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure.” 6 Then I said, “Behold, I have come to do your will,” O God, as it is written of me in the scroll of the book.” 7 When he said above, “You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings” (these are offered according to the law), 8 then he added, “Behold, I have come to do your will.” He does away with the first in order to establish the second. 9 And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all. 10 And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. 11 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, 12 waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. 13 For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. 14 And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, 15 “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds,” 16 then he adds, “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.” 18 Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

Laws About Restitution (Ex 21:33 – 22:15)

1. What seems to be the primary measurement of wealth among those under the law?

2. Each law details a fault of some kind:
   a. Mistakes – Problem results from misguided, but purposeful action
   b. Accidents – Problem results from pure misfortune
   c. No fault – Problem was of no fault to any human party
   d. Dishonesty – Problem was created purposefully and unlawfully

Tithes (Deut 14:22-29; 26)

In Class Activity

1. What reason does God give for tithing at the end of Deuteronomy 14:23?

2. Is tithing described as a burden or a joy (Deut 14:23, 25-26)?

3. Who does tithing help (Deut 14:29)?

4. What is called into remembrance through tithing (Deut 26:16-17)?

5. Which of our themes do you see in the instructions for tithing?

Contributions for the Sanctuary (Ex 25:1-9; 35:4-29; Num 7)

In Class Activity

1. What requirement is given by God for making a contribution for the Sanctuary (Ex 25:2)?

2. How does Moses restate this requirement to the people (Ex 35:5)?

3. How did the people respond (Ex 35:20-29)?

Our measure of wealth tends to define us as people. The way we think, the actions we take, the goals we set...all revolve around our ability, or inability to pay. God saw the danger in this and gave us laws to govern our management of finances. The true wisdom of these laws though, is found not in the physical details, but rather in the underlying principles that guide them. Responsibility, love for others, and remembrance of God are just a few of these principles that lead us to the often-seen conclusion that God desires our hearts, and is trying to lead them towards His Son and our Savior, Jesus the Christ.

Objectives for lesson 7

- Identify the place and circumstance that the Sabbath was first revealed
- Recall key points on how to observe the Sabbath
- Show what the Sabbath represented

Reading

Exodus 16; 20:8-11; 23:10-12; 31:12-18

What is the Sabbath?

| Exodus 16:23 | ...a day of solemn rest, a holy Sabbath to the Lord… |
| Exodus 20:11 | ...the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy. |
| Exodus 35:2  | ...on the seventh day you shall have a Sabbath… |
| Leviticus 23:3 | ...a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation. |
| Deuteronomy 5:15 | ...the Lord your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath… |

Vine’s: Sabbaton (singular) or Sabbata (plural); The root means to cease, desist; The doubled b has an intensive force, implying a complete cessation or a making to cease, probably the former.

The plural form, Sabbata, was transliterated from the Aramaic word, which was mistaken for a plural; hence the singular, Sabbaton, was formed from it.

Translation errors partially explain the repeated use of ‘Sabbaths’ in the plural:

Other reasons for ‘Sabbaths’ in the plural are that it is referencing all instances of the Sabbath, week by week; Some have also suggested that it is used as a synecdoche to represent the adherence to all of God’s laws.
How is the Sabbath Observed...

1. ...concerning work (Ex 20:8-10)?

2. ...weekly (which day)?

3. ...yearly (which year)?

4. ...by the high priest (Lev 24:8; Num 28:9-10)?

5. What was the punishment for breaking the Sabbath (Num 15:32-36)?

The Importance of the Sabbath

In Class Activity

12 And the Lord said to Moses, 13 "You are to speak to the people of Israel and say, 'Above all you shall keep my Sabbaths, for this is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, that you may know that I, the Lord sanctify you. 14 You shall keep the Sabbath, because it is holy for you. Everyone who profanes it shall be put to death. Whoever does any work on it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. 15 Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the Lord. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall be put to death. 16 Therefore the people of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, observing the Sabbath throughout their generations, as a covenant forever. 17 It is a sign forever between me and the people of Israel that in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed.'"

Objectives for lesson 9

- Identify the first mention of clean and unclean animals; Establish possible significance
- Define what makes an animal clean or unclean
- Define what makes a person clean or unclean

Reading

Leviticus 11

“Take with you seven pairs of all clean animals, the male and his mate, and a pair of the animals that are not clean, the male and his mate…”

Genesis 7:2 (ESV)

~ 1000 years

Genesis 7:2

Instruction given to Noah that first mentions a difference between clean and unclean animals

Leviticus

Difference between all things clean and unclean formalized in the giving of the law

Provide a theory for what Noah would have known ‘clean’ and ‘not clean’ to mean:
Clean and Unclean Animals – Leviticus 11

What rule is given...

...for beasts (vs 3)?
...for sea creatures (vs 9)?
...for birds (vs 13-19)? No rule, only a list of birds that should be regarded detestable
...for insects (vs 20, 21):
...for vermin and ‘swarming’ things (vs 41)?

Theories for the purpose of these restrictions:

1. Hygiene – many forbidden creatures are known carriers of disease
2. Paganism – many forbidden creatures were sacred in certain pagan religions
3. Symbolism – governing rules were symbolic of how an Israelite should live
4. Arbitrary – division between clean and unclean is random and without reason
5. Separation – to keep God’s people separate from the surrounding nations by distinguishing their laws and customs from everyone around them

Clean and Unclean People

What do the following examples of people becoming unclean have in common?

Lev 11:24
Lev 14:46
Lev 15:5
Num 19:11

By inference, what is cleanliness associated with in Leviticus 11:45?

What provides atonement for those deemed unclean?

Lev 12:6-7
Lev 14:12-13
Lev 15:29-30
Lev 16:30

In Leviticus 13:45-46 we see instruction on cleanliness that touches on all four of our themes. We see the antitype of holiness represented by a leprous man. He is clothed in disorder; his appearance unkempt; his speech reveals him; he is separated from righteousness and will remain there as long as he is unclean. We learn to fear God through his judgment on that which is unclean. We learn to love our neighbor by considering the state that others may find themselves in. The leper, and also the sinner, needs our love desperately since their lives depend on their restoration. And finally we learn to love Jesus more as we consider the state that He has saved us all from through His great sacrifice.

6 For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. 7 For one will scarcely die for a righteous person – though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die – 8 but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Difficult Laws for an Unbeliever

1. “If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them.” Lev 20:13
2. “While the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Sabbath day…And the LORD said to Moses, “The man shall be put to death; all the congregation shall stone him with stones outside the camp.”” Num 15:32,35
3. “But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her menstruation. And she shall continue in the blood of her purifying for sixty-six days.” Lev 12:5
4. “If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who will not obey the voice of his father or the voice of his mother…Then all the men of the city shall stone him to death with stones. So you shall purge the evil from your midst, and all Israel shall hear and fear.” Deut 21:18a, 21
5. “…and the Israelite woman’s son blasphemed the Name, and cursed…Whoever blasphemes the name of the LORD shall surely be put to death. All the congregation shall stone him.” Lev 24:11a, 16a
6. “But if the thing is true, that evidence of virginity was not found in the young woman, then they shall bring out the young woman to the door of her father’s house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones…” Deut 22:20-21a

Blessings and Curses

Themes

| Holiness | Fear | Love for Jesus | Love for Neighbor |

Goals

1. Use principles from the Old Testament law to guide our Christian principles

Blessings

“If you walk in my statutes and observe my commandments and do them…”

- Food will be provided – Lev 26:4-5
- There will be peace and safety – Lev 26:6-8
- The nation will be blessed – Lev 26:9
- God will be among you – Lev 26:11-12

What do the first three of these blessings in Leviticus 26 have in common?

You are a chosen people – Deut 7:6
Not because of your number – Deut 7:7
Nor your righteousness – Deut 9:1-12
But because of God’s love – Deut 7:8
Therefore, love and serve the Lord – Deut 11
The Choice of Life and Death

“15 See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil. 16 If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I command you today, by loving the LORD your God, by walking in his ways, and by keeping his commandments and his statutes and his rules, then you shall live and multiply, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to take possession of it. 17 But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but are drawn away to worship other gods and serve them, 18 I declare to you today, that you shall surely perish…”

Deuteronomy 30:15-18a (ESV)

We see here at the end of Deuteronomy 30 Moses’ grand conclusion to the revealed Law. It is clear that God has given us a choice, either to obey and be blessed, or disobey and be cursed. The blessings and curses have been revealed and with the choices laid out, He urges us to make the right one:

“19 …Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live, 20 loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days…”

Deuteronomy 30:19b-20a (ESV)

The Greatest Commandment

“You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.”

Deuteronomy 6:5 (ESV)

In-Class Question
How are we able to show our adherence to this commandment? List as many ways as you can.

The Second Greatest Commandment

“You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.”

Leviticus 19:18 (ESV)

Jesus mentions this commandment three different times in the Gospels:
1. In response to the Rich Young Ruler (Matthew 19:16-26)
   Of all the commandments listed in verses 18-19, what do they all have in common except for this one?
2. When building on the established principles of the Law (Matthew 5:43-48)
   How do you think Jesus’ listeners would have reacted to this teaching?
3. In response to the question from the Pharisee lawyer (Matthew 22:34-40)
   What tool does Jesus use in both his response to the Pharisees (vs 37, 39), and his subsequent attack on them (vs. 44)?

Twice more in the New Testament it is used to emphasize its importance:
4. By Paul (Galatians 5:14)
5. By James (James 2:8)

Think of as many of the old laws as you can. How many of them have something to do with loving your neighbor?

“36 ‘Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?’ 37 And He said to him, ‘
‘YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND.’ 38 This is the great and foremost commandment. 39 The second is like it, ‘YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.’ 40 On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets.”
