Review of Chapters 1-11:
In this section of Genesis we see origins explained: The creation of the world and all it contains, the creation of man in God’s image, and the ideal of how God intended man to live. We also see the consequences of sin, as man is evicted from the Garden of Eden, and eventually the creation is destroyed in a mighty flood. We also see the origins of the nations of earth, and of diverse languages.

This is the Universal history of man. In these chapters we see the lineage of Adam down to the calling of Abraham. From this point on, God begins to choose a special people for Himself... the Hebrews.

Reading Assignment: Genesis 1-11
- What responsibilities were given to man in the garden? How did those change after he sinned? How did they change after the flood?

- What was the relationship of Man and Women in the garden? How did it change after they sinned? How does it change again in Christ?

- Describe the lifespan of men before and after the flood. What other changes did they experience before and after?

- What does Genesis tell us about God’s plan of salvation in these chapters?

The Flood:

In the wake of the sin of Adam, Genesis describes the downward spiral of humanity into great wickedness. From the disgrace of the line of Cain, to the intermarriage of women with the ‘sons of God,’ to the corruption of the earth with violence, mankind becomes wholly evil, so that God resolves to erase them from the world through a flood. But God maintains hope for the human race through the righteous man Noah.

Reading Assignment: 5:1-9:29

❖ How does the meaning of Noah’s name (5:29) relate to the outcome of the flood?

❖ Write down any questions you have about the meaning of 6:1-4:

❖ What changes as a result of the flood?
Lesson 5: Creation and the Flood with Respect to Modern Science: Questions we have as the People of God

Hebrews 11: 7-10

INTRODUCTION:

The first five books of the Bible, the Pentateuch was written while Moses led the people to the promise land. It answered questions that Israel would have as they departed Egypt. Genesis told Israel; how the world came to be, where we came from, how sin entered this world, how it was changed by sin and the flood, how God made a covenant with Abraham, information about the land, and how Israel came to be in Egypt.  The Egyptians and the Canaanites had their own stories of creation and the flood. Those entering the promise land would be questioned about their beliefs and in Genesis God provided the answers. Today the people of God are wandering in a land not our own and need to make a defense of our faith and be able to give a defense to beliefs of Modern Science.

If you have an answer below check the box. You can fill in the basic response if you wish. If not do some studying and hopefully we will be able to provide some answers during class?

1 Peter 3:15(NKJV)

But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear;

My question was not asked. Can we discuss these questions?
Abraham:
Human pride and sin has resulted in their scattering over all the earth. They are now distinct even from each other, in language, race, geography, nation, etc. Yet God maintains his interest in redeeming humanity. From this point forward, He initiates his plan of salvation, doing so through the call of a single man through whom the whole of humanity can receive God’s blessing – righteous Abraham.

Jacob:

With the death of Abraham, the covenant blessing of God passes to his son, Isaac. But whereas the son of Abraham is promised by God, the son of Isaac to inherit the blessing is taken by trickery. While this leads Jacob to a life beset by problems outside the land of promise, God nonetheless reaffirms his commitment to Jacob as the father and namesake of His chosen people, Israel.

Reading Assignment: 25:19-37:1

- What does God tell Rebekah about her two sons? How does this play out in their birth, and respective proficiencies?

- How does Esau ‘despise’ his birthright? What does that mean? (25:34)

- How is the story of Isaac and Abimelech in chapter 26 similar to/ different from the stories of Abraham in chapters 12 & 20?

<table>

- Describe Rebekah’s role in the deception of Isaac to bless Jacob. What does Jacob say to Isaac to execute the plan?
What is the blessing that Isaac gives to Jacob?

What is Esau’s reaction to the loss of the blessing? What is Isaac’s response?

To where does Jacob flee in response to Esau’s anger?

What does God promise to Jacob at Bethel? What vow does Jacob make?

How are the tables turned on Jacob for his trickery when he comes to the house of Laban? How do Jacob and Rachel trick Laban in return?

What is the motivation for Jacob’s gifts to Esau? What is Esau’s reaction upon meeting up with Jacob? Is Jacob honest with Esau on this occasion?
On the night before he reunites with Esau, whom does Jacob encounter? What does this person do to Jacob? What is the meaning of the new name given to Jacob?

What strategy to Jacob’s sons use to avenge the rape of their sister?

When Jacob returns to Bethel, what does God repeat to him?
Joseph:

“When Israel was a child, I loved him, And out of Egypt I called My son.”

In his gospel, Matthew tells us that this prophecy of Hosea refers to Jesus (Matt 2:15). But it also applies to the nation of Israel as they leave Egypt in the story told in Exodus.

But how did they come to Egypt in the first place? Why did they leave Canaan? The story of God’s chosen people continues as God uses Joseph to preserve His people, and builds them into the promised “great nation” in the land of Egypt.

Reading Assignment: 37:1-50:26

- Describe the two dreams that Joseph had regarding himself and his family.

- We are told why Joseph’s brothers disliked him in chapter 37. What reasons were given? As you read through the following chapters to the end of Genesis, what other reasons might there be?

- What plan do the brothers make to resolve this problem? Are all of the brothers in agreement?

- Jacob believed in his heart that Joseph was dead. If a belief is deeply held (even though not based on truth), does that make that belief valid?
Why did Moses record the story of Judah and Tamar in Genesis 38? (Hint Luke 3:33)

What was the relationship between Joseph and Potiphar in Egypt? To what level did Potiphar trust Joseph? Did Joseph properly repay that trust?

Despite his actions toward Potiphar and his wife, Joseph ended up in prison again. Why?

Genesis records that the LORD assisted Joseph in two observable ways. What were they? (Gen 39:5, 39:23, 40:12, 40:18). What benefit would these two ways provide later in Gen 41:38-40?

What caused Joseph’s brothers to go to Egypt? Was this foretold? When?

When the brothers returned to Canaan, what trick had Joseph played on them? Why did he do this?
Why were the brothers reluctant to bring Benjamin to Egypt?

How did Joseph feel about seeing his brothers (Gen 43:30-31, 45:1-4)? How did the brothers feel about seeing him? Why were the perspectives different?

What did Joseph understand about the course of his life that his brothers did not?
