Principles

D. Each lesson in this course will deal with a particular situation in which the influences of a fallen world challenge our faithfulness. Each will include a series of Bible examples, usually good and bad, followed by a presentation of other Bible teaching on the subject, and concluding with some personal applications for us all.
Accountable for my actions
Right can always be done
May be at peace (content)
Even if I don’t know why, God’s commands are best for me
Directed toward a single goal
2: Discouragement

A. Examine the following examples of discouragement from the Bible. For each, determine the causes of their discouragement. Using the next page, list the symptoms, and describe how each character handled the discouragement. (What did they do?) What were the consequences of their actions?

Cain (Gen. 4:1-8)
Ahab (I Kings 21:1-27)
Amnon (II Sam. 13:1-19)
Elijah (I Kings 19:1-21)
Jonah (Jonah 3:5-4:11)
David (II Sam. 18:33-19:18)
David (II Sam. 12:15-24)
Nehemiah (Neh. 2:2,3)
Joshua (Josh 7:1-26)

B. Who will be judged for the behavior of these men? Consider the last three examples. Where did they receive their strength and guidance? (see I Cor. 1:3, 4, 9-11; Phil. 4:11-13) Where should we get our strength when things go wrong? Are we still responsible to do what is right?

C. Read I Pet. 3:8-17 and Rom. 12:9-21. What do these passages teach about dealing with evil that comes our way? List some everyday activities that Rom. 12:10-17 suggests would be helpful in “overcoming evil with good.”

D. List some specific things that cause you personally to be despondent. List some activities of service to others that will help to overcome the temptation to do wrong in each case.

E. Make a specific list of things we could always be doing to avoid becoming discouraged.
3: Evil Influences

A. Listen to the story of the young man's experiences at his place of entertainment. What effect would these experiences have on him? What suggestions would you make about the place of entertainment he has chosen? (See Prov. 6:27, 28) What kinds of similar influences do each of us tolerate in our lives?

B. What does the Bible say should be our reaction to the evil conduct in the world about us? (Eph. 5:3,11,12)

C. Make a list of things put on and put off in the following verses from Eph 4 & 5

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Put Off</th>
<th>Put On</th>

<tr>
<td>4:22,23 (and 5:3,9-11)</td>

D. What reasons can you give that people spend so much time in contact with sources of evil influences?

E. Read II Sam. 11: 1-5; 12:26-28. What could David have been doing to avoid being tempted? What do II Pet. 1:8-10, I Tim. 5:13, Tit. 3:14 suggest about avoiding idleness?

F. List at least ten other specific habits that we could develop to overcome our dangerous idle habits (personal projects, family activities, etc)?

D. What is the basis of a Christian’s faith? (see Rom 10:17; I Cor 15:17; Jno 20:30,31) Do these facts change when we face fear or ignorance?

E. Describe the nature of faith, compared to “knowledge” or “sight” (see Heb 11:1-3). Is it expected that our faith will cause us to know: the answer to every difficult question? the reason for every disappoint? the purpose for every problem? the outcome of every action? If we could know all these things, would we really have faith? (see II Cor 5:7)
